Liberalisation in Agriculture

3260. SHRI BHUPINDER SINGH MANN: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether liberalised economy which is a major plank of reforms introduced by Government has also been introduced to the agriculture related commodities for processing;

(b) what is the justification of debarring the farmers from processing their sugarcane for sugar;

(c) whether Government will allow farmers to process their sugarcane without any licence; and

(d) if so, by when; and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI ARVIND NETAM): (a) The Government have taken various steps to promote food processing industries, which inter-alia include declaration of most food processing industries as high priority, delicensing of all good processing industries, excepting for distillation and brewing of alcoholic beverages and those items reserved for Small Scale Sector, automatic approval of Foreign Equity upto 51% in high priority areas and technology agreements, permitting Foreign / Non-Resident Indian investments, providing fiscal reliefs, etc.

(b) to (d) In so far as processing of sugarcane is concerned, it is undertaken by the sugar factories for manufacture of vaccum pan sugar. However, sugar factories have to take a licence under the Industries (Development & Regulation) Act, 1951 for setting up a sugar factory. As regards processing of cane for gur and khandsari, these are controlled by various State Governments / Union Territories under their own orders.
